

WORLD BOOK DAY 2021

REF: EFIA/CIR-007/2021-22

20/04/2021

“A book is a garden, an orchard, a storehouse, a party, a company by the way, a counselor, a multitude of counselors.”

- Charles Baudelaire

World Book Day is observed on 23rd April 2021, with the aim of instilling a love of books and collaborative reading among today's youth. Its goal is to encourage reading for pleasure by providing every child and young person with their own book, as reading for pleasure is one of the important predictors of a child's knowledge.
