ATTENDANCE PRIOR TO AND DURING TERM 1 EXAMINATION 2024-2025

Dear Parents / Students,

Greetings

Term I Examination (A.Y 2024-2025) for grade 1 To 12 will be commencing on 30th September 2024 as per the Date Sheet issued on 28-8-2024. Parents are advised to dedicate their quality time to support their wards in their preparation.

It had been observed that many students go absent on previous days of examination in previous years. It is highly discouraged and unauthorised. Being Monday, 30th September 2024, student get two days off prior to beginning of the examination. Hence, it is mandatory for all students to be present in the school on Friday (27-9-2024) except for any medical condition which can be supported with valid certificate. No permission will be granted for any other reason.

Students who are absent on Friday, 27th Sept 2024 (except for reasons which are beyond their control) will not be permitted to appear in the first subject of the Term-1 examination scheduled on 30th Sept 24 unless valid evidences for their absence is submitted. In such cases neither retest nor rescheduling of missed out exams will be conducted which will adversely affect their Term-1 result.

It is also informed to all the parents that no absence from Term-1 examination will be permitted except cases supported with valid DOH approved medical certificates.

All the best for the forthcoming examination.
